Taft Was Threatened

One Dollar Quoted To Angeles

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—A steamship rate war has started among the lines operating on the South Pacific Coast. Today the rate quoted from this port to Los Angeles was one dollar. The lines are doing a rushing business, and if the war continues an added impetus will be given the crowds coming in this direction to the Portola Festival.

Admiral Dead

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Admiral Cleborne died here today.

Christopher James Cleborne was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, Dec. 16, 1838. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1860. Appointed assistant surgeon of the U. S. Navy in October, 1863. He retired with rank of rear admiral Nov. 10, 1899. He served in European Squadron, and besides many notable military achievements, was a noted writer and authority on naval affairs.

Went Up In Smoke, Says Speaker Holstein

Editor Evening Bulletin:—In one of your issues under the heading "Elgin Was Asked" by Mr. Holstein to send in his bill, which is known throughout the land as the graft claim on the Congressional appropriation, permit me to say that Mr. Holstein never asked Mr. Elgin to present such a bill. In fact the first time Mr. Holstein knew that such a claim was to be made was when he was informed so by one of the committee members who accompanied the Congressional party from Honolulu, and when Mr. Elgin requested blank vouchers under Territorial form to write his claim on, Mr. Holstein referred him to Senator Woods, who had charge of such matters,

WILHELMINA MADE SHRINER TRIP HAS HOPEFUL OUTLOOK

POTENTATE C. G. BOEKUS OF ALOHA Temple writes Noble E. C. Brown under date of September 24 that on the Wednesday previous there were ninety-two acceptances received by the Committee of Islam Temple in charge of the excursion to Klaua. The committee adjourned to meet on the afternoon of September 22, when the reports from the Shriners at Los Angeles, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and other places would be turned in. It was then the opinion of the Islam committee that the trip would be a "go."

MISS TENNEY DID HER IMPORTANT PART WELL

Details of Launching Matson Liner Which Is to Be Put On Local Run — Captain Johnson Was There.

The Daily Press of Newport News, Va., publishes the following under date of Sept. 19:

Christened by Miss Wilhelmina Tenney of Honolulu, the Matson Navigation Company's big new freight and passenger steamer Wilhelmina, the third largest craft of her type ever built here, was successfully launched at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company at 10:55 o'clock yesterday morning. Only a small party of invited guests witnessed the event.

No launching at the local yard was any prettier than this one. Long before the sawing of the sole piece—

TAFT WAS IN DANGER

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 2.—A sensation was caused here today by the action of a man who was apparently striving to get near President Taft to do him injury. The guards about the President were attracted by this man carrying a camera, who was forcing his way through the crowds in an attempt to reach the Taft automobile. The man was arrested, and when taken into custody was found to have a revolver and ammunition in his pockets. He gave his name as Arthur Wright and claims to be a tourist from Massachusetts.

$500 FOR FAMILIES OF MEN KILLED

Indemnity Provided For Diamond Head Victims

The families of Manalo and Hooke, the Hawaiian laborers who went to such an untimely death on September 30 in the fatal railway tunnel accident at Diamond Head, will receive approximately $500 each, under the provisions of an Act of Congress passed April 14, 1908. This Act grants to the families of laborers and artisans employed in Federal service a certain indemnity based on the wages of the men for a year after the disability of the employees.

In regard to the report that the brakes were defective on the cars, Major Winslow said this morning that the cars were not supposed to be operated with brakes at all. That they were handled entirely by cable, on a balance system, that is, one cable hauling up one car and letting another down to balance it.

"The loaded cars apparently got away before the cable was attached. The men jumped and tried to stop them, but they had gained too much of a start. As it was they stayed on the track until three-quarters of the way through the tunnel."

Hooke is said to have acted heroically, and lost his life practically in an attempt to save Manalo. According to the story, Manalo jumped for the loaded cars when they started at the top of the incline, but being unable to stop them or get off, Hooke rushed to the aid of his friend. Thus

GETS HUNGRY AND GIVES HIMSELF UP.

Four days of freedom was just enough for Pablo Aleise, the Territorial convict who escaped from the gang last Wednesday when it was working at Kapiolani Park.

Last night he wandered into the Territorial prison in a very dejected manner and gave himself up, saying that he was hungry and wanted something to eat. Diamond Head afforded a good shelter, but no table d'hôte.

He sacrificed his life for the other in a most heroic manner. Manalo is said to have shouted to Hooke to jump off and save himself, but the latter refused and went to his death without flinching.

Every attention is being shown to the families of the men by the military authorities, to lessen their suffering.

CHALMERS MAY GET CONTRACT

Is Lowest Of The Four Bidders On Museum Laboratory

In response to the solicitation of the trustees of the Bishop Museum, the bids for the new Laboratory were opened this morning, and showed a great variation in the estimates. The contract will probably go to the lowest bidder, who is Chalmers, at a figure of $48,093. The estimated cost of the structure was $50,000.

The Laboratory, the plans of which have been published in full, is for the purposes of scientific research and to house scientific archives. The four bids opened are as follows:

Craig, $66,000; Lucas Bros., $56,000; Concrete Construction Co., $53,500; Chalmers, $48,093.

SAILORS VS. LOCAL TENNIS PLAYERS

On Monday afternoon there will be an interesting tennis match, between eight fleet officers and eight players from the local clubs. The events will be played on the Pacific courts and should prove very interesting.

The following officers will represent the fleet: Bradford, Holmes, Marlon, Carpenter, Nicholson, Henderson, Littlefield and Moses. The local players will be selected today and it is expected that a very strong combination will go up against the fleet officers.

CONCERT AT SEASIDE HOTEL.

The Ernest Kaal Glee Club will play and sing at the Seaside Hotel tomorrow afternoon and during the dinner hours and in the evening.

TELEPHONE PLANS INDEFINITELY HUNG UP

Mutual Withdraws $20,000 Intended For Country Improvements

WILLING TO PROVIDE FOR COUNTY AND CITY WIRES

Ex-Governor Carter Says Their Proposition Will Be More of a Saving to the County in the Future Than by Present Ordinance.

Not only are there prospects of serious delay and a prolonged holdup in the establishment of the new automatic telephone system on account of the street excavation ordinance recently passed by the Board of Supervisors, but ex-Governor Carter, treasurer of the Mutual, said this morning that the action of the Board has held on the expenditure of $20,000 to improve and facilitate the telephone system throughout the country districts.

Before the ordinance was passed, the attorneys for the Mutual conferred with Deputy County Attorney Milverton, with the purpose of drawing up an agreement, by which the telephone company would reserve space in their conduits for the police and fire wires and keep them in repair during the life of its charter (27 years). The company also agreed to include county and city wires wherever its system was extended.

The condition on which the company would do all this was to be extended.

FLEET NEWS

Talk On Monday. The talk on "Our Navy," by Captain Fiske, which was to have been given yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Navy League, was unavoidably postponed until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Glacier Unloading. All day yesterday and late into the night the crew of the Glacier, and details from the other ships in the fleet, were busy taking out of her hold stores for the fleet which have been waited for patiently.

It is hoped that all her stores will be unloaded today and coaling commenced so that she will be able to leave with the rest of the fleet on Tuesday. Every sort of stores were on board, and a number of goods which were consumed on the trip down and during the stay here have been replenished.

Maryland Inside. Yesterday afternoon the cruiser Maryland, Captain Gilmore, which has been lying outside for a week, hove up her anchors and entered the harbor shortly before 5 o'clock and took her place in the berth vacated by the Columbia. One of the prettiest dockings seen for many a day here, was the sight that those on the front were treated to.

Coming into the harbor at a moderate speed, when nearly opposite the naval wharves, made a turn to starboard and came alongside, going ahead or astern being necessary as is so often the case with ships coming alongside of a dock.

Bedford Coaled. Coaling operations on the Bedford which took up the whole of yesterday were finished shortly before midnight last night and today shore liberty will be granted to all hands. Last night the crew took on a special sport, so as to be free today to see the town and mingle with the other men-of-war now in port.

Petty Officers' Dance. Resident in their blue uniforms with chevrons denoting their rank, the Chief Petty Officers of the Pacific fleet received the people of Honolulu last night, at the most successful
